

Lieut. Col. I. A. Miller.

Main Line's Ranking War Veteran Home

LIET. COL. MILLER, OF NARBERTH, PERFORMS FINE WORK IN TRANSPORTATION CORPS.

(This article is reprinted from Sunday's Inquirer, and the electrotpe from Sunday's Press.)

Lieutenant Colonel I. A. Miller, who served on the personal staff of Brigadier General W. W. Atterbury, as business manager of the American Army railroad service in France, reached New York on the Aquitania Friday and returned to his home at Narberth yesterday. When he went away in 1917 Colonel Miller was commissioned as a Captain.

Although he performed some notable services in France, helping to systematize the American methods of doing business with the railroads of France, he would not talk either of his own achievements or of the American railway transport service, of which General Atterbury had charge. The little Borough of Narberth has 143 stars in its service flag. Colonel Miller is the highest ranking man from the Main Line town. When General Atterbury left the Pennsylvania Railroad and went overseas, Colonel Miller was chief accountant in the office of the general manager, at Broad Street Station.

After the Transportation Corps had been started in France, General Atterbury cabled to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, asking for the release of Colonel Miller. He accepted a commission as Captain, sailing for France October 5, 1917. In France he was advanced to Major, and assigned to the business office of the Transportation Corps, at the headquarters of the Director General of Transportation. He was advanced to the rank of Lieutenant Colonel, Railway Transportation Corps, on October 1, 1918, and on December 17, 1918, became business manager on the personal staff of General Atterbury.

Mrs. Miller, who was Miss Ada Cooper, of Baltimore, and her daughter, Miss Anita Cooper, went to New York to meet Colonel Miller, who was also greeted at the pier by a group of his former associates in the general manager's office in Philadelphia.

CHANGE OF DATE.

The Chairman of the Memorial Committee has found it necessary to change the date of the meeting of the General Committee set for Friday evening, March 7th.

Please be on hand in the Council Chamber on Friday evening, March 14th, with as much information on your suggestion for a reception and memorial as possible.

CARL B. METZGER,
Chairman.
T. NOEL BUTLER,
Secretary.

MISSIONARY TEA.

There will be a Missionary Tea on Tuesday afternoon, March 11, in the parlors of the Presbyterian Church, from 3 until 5.

Rev. Ray H. Carter, who has spent fourteen years in India, will tell of his work and experiences in that country. There will be an interesting musical program by the church soloists.

Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting. Silver offering will be donated to the Jubilee Campaign Fund.

All the women of Narberth are cordially invited to attend.

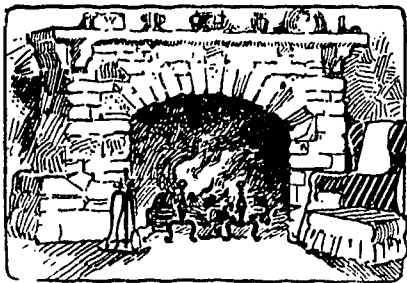

Don't forget the date and place, March 11th, in the Presbyterian Church at 3 o'clock. All are welcome.

COMMISSIONERS' MEETING.

At the meeting of the Lower Merion Township Commissioners on Tuesday evening the ordinances fixing the tax rate at ten mills and making the appropriations for the current year were passed finally. An ordinance was also passed repealing section 29 of the rules and regulations of the Board of Health, which provided rules for plumbing work.

All members were present excepting Major Evans, who is away on a furlough; Mr. Supplee, who is convalescing from his recent illness, and Mr. Delaplaine, who has been doing jury duty at Norristown.

The correct way to have your mail directed, if you live in Narberth and have a P. O. box, is to your box number. There are any number of the patrons who have all their mail thus directed. It avoids errors and delay.

THE FIRESIDE

Better than money because they earn money. Buy a War Stamp to-day.

Mrs. Edgar H. Cockrill, of Essex avenue, has gone to Buffalo for an extended stay.

The Fortnightly Club took in the annual exhibition of the Academy of the Fine Arts last Friday.

The Women's Community Club of Narberth will give a dance in Elm Hall Monday evening, March 17th. Further particulars to follow.

The Community Club will have a large stock of seeds on sale at the Old Post Office Building Saturday from 3.30 to 5 o'clock.

Lieutenant Walter M. Burkhardt, of 100 Maple avenue, sailed for France on Tuesday last, on the U. S. S. Madawaska, from Newport News.

Mr. McLoughlin, the popular tenor in the new quartette of the Presbyterian Church, will sing a solo at the Vesper service next Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Burley, of Altoona, Pa., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. W. B. Humes, 306 South Narberth avenue, for the week end.

The elders of the Presbyterian Church and their wives will be entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Beatty next Monday evening.

On the evening of March 28th, at 8.15 o'clock, the Haverford College Glee and Mandolin Clubs will give an entertainment in the High School Auditorium. This will be held under the auspices of the Senior Class, and the public support is solicited.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Temple, of New York, have left Narberth, where they have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Collins, of Narbrook Park. Mr. Temple is now with the "Better 'Ole" company, playing in Chicago.

The Civic Association has arranged a plan whereby a tree can be planted for each boy in the service. If you want a tree for a particular boy, get in touch with H. R. Hillegas, Chairman of the Garden Committee, who will give you full particulars.

A Memorial Athletic Field certainly would seem like a practical proposition. The coming generation could be trained there to "do it again" if necessary and the idea will surely find favor with the veterans themselves. And besides Narberth really needs and must have an athletic field.

The monthly card party given by the Community Club will be held at the residence of Mrs. H. A. Jacobs, 3 Elmwood avenue, on Tuesday, March 25th, at 2 P. M. The charge is only 35 cents. Not only members are invited to attend, but any ladies who enjoy "bridge" or "five hundred."

The Children's Church will give a Bake and Candy Sale at the old Post Office in Narberth on Saturday, March 8th, at 11 to 2 o'clock. All the parents of the children and friends of the Children's Church are requested to donate and patronize. Mrs. Clarence L. Smith, Chairlady of Committee.

The Women's Community Club will hold their dance in Elm Hall Monday night, March 17th. Exhibitions will be given by professional dancers, Rogers and Rogers, and other well-known artists.

Tickets, $1.00, may be obtained from Mrs. C. P. Fowler or any of the club members.

It is earnestly requested that all members will make their ticket returns at the meeting Tuesday, if possible.

ONE BIG IMPROVEMENT.

Do you ever have occasion to stroll along the north side of Windsor avenue past Conway?

Up until two weeks ago it meant a detour, or something like that, to preserve your socks and religion, but thanks to Councils, the Highway Department and our very efficient Street Commissioner, we now have a regular crossing which should last until Conway avenue becomes a regular boulevard.

"The Life of Col. Roosevelt," commencing when this illustrious American was about five years of age and following his career as a youth, young manhood, middle age and down to the present, is the screen masterpiece to be shown at the Palace Theatre, Ardmore, on Wednesday and Thursday. The advance in rank of General Pershing, the selection of Admiral Sims and many great achievements are shown in an inspiring and truthful history of the life of a great American.

TO ALL RESIDENTS OF NARBERTH.

There has in the past been just a little misunderstanding regarding subscriptions to Our Town and membership in the Civic Association.

Up until a year ago there was an arrangement by which one remittance covered both a voting membership in the Association and a year's subscription to Our Town.

It was found necessary to change this arrangement and to separate the two, so that moneys for subscriptions to Our Town should be sent to Miss Mazie J. Simpson, Cashier, P. O. Box No. 118, and dues for sustaining or voting membership in the Civic Association sent to R. J. Edgar, Treasurer, P. O. Box No. 601.

OVERHEAD.

Scene: Narbrook Park.

Time: Spring Nineteen Nineteen.

Two average looking gentlemen walking through park entrance—one with dog trailing, companion with walking-stick; weather rather chilly.

First Stroller—"Hello, Bill! Takin' your constitutional?"

Second Ditto—"You betcha, Ed. You goin' to look the park over, too?"

Ed—"Yes, I stroll over most every Sunday. Gee! These two new houses are almost finished. Let's see, that makes nine. Goin' pretty good, ain't it?"

Bill—"Sure is. It'll soon be time for the Borough to take it over. More tax revenue. That ought to keep the percentage down a little. Quite a fine idea, I say, to leave a little breathing spot. I'll have to look up one of these lots. The bloomin' burg's gettin' pretty well built up."

Ed—"Say, Bill, do you know what the big idea is on these lots around the bend here? Let's see, the first three are Nos. 2, 4 and 6. This bunch must be 8, 10 and 12. Wonder why they ain't filled in or somethin'? Don't the deeds call for the owners keepin' them in shape, grass cut an' all that?"

Bill—"Yes, I believe they do; but this fellow must have forgotten he owns 'em."

Ed—"Why don't he get the Borough to dump some ashes in those holes? They'll make fine breedin' places for 'skeeters' in the summer. Maybe that's the idea, mosquito farm. Eh?"

Bill—"Maybe the guy wants to raise tadpoles an' things or maybe he expects to have frog's legs next summer."

Ed—"He ought to have somethin'."

What kind of a Bolshevik is he anyhow?"

Bill—"Oh, he's not a Bolshevik. He's a 'reglar feller' all right; in fact, he votes the same ticket as this fellow on the next lot."

Ed—"Zat right? Why, this duck has a hedge all around the lot. Did you see it last summer? He raised a million beans on it, an' dahlias an' everything."

Bill—"Yes, I noticed it, time of the 'Patriotic Fete.' But y' can't dope 'em out, can y'?"

Ed—"No, y' can't figger 'em."

Bill—"Well, I'll have to mosey back or the missus'll be bawlin' me out. So long, Eddie."

Ed—"Olive oil."

(Hesitators continue strolling.)

On the 8th snow fell to the depth of 1½ inches, the total for the month being 2.2 inches, compared to ¾ of an inch in January.

The well-developed storm of the 25th-26th moved across the country with great rapidity, attended by heavy rains from Florida to New England, of which not quite an inch fell in Narberth.

PRECIPITATION AT NARBERTH.

There are considerably more than 100 stations scattered over Pennsylvania where precipitation records are kept. During the few months that such records have been kept at Narberth it is interesting and satisfactory to note that Narberth is very far from having the least amount of precipitation in the State. The records for January show that Narberth was among the first six stations that received the heaviest precipitation, while so far she has never had less than Philadelphia.

The following table shows the precipitation, in inches and hundredths, at Narberth and Philadelphia for the past four months:

	Narberth.	Philadelphia.
Inches.	Inches.
November	2.51	1.93
December	4.72	4.23
January	4.02	3.35
February	3.72	3.04
Totals.....	14.97	12.58

Which leaves a difference in favor of Narberth of 2.39 inches, or more than half an inch a month. George S. Bliss, of the Philadelphia Weather Bureau, declares that it is possible Narberth may even up with Philadelphia; or, maybe the smokeless skies of Narberth are more conducive to free precipitation than the smoky ones of the city. It will be interesting to watch if this ratio will continue through the warmer months. At Haverford records were kept from 1839 to 1885, but they appear to be broken and are not considered reliable. Hence it would hardly be profitable to use them as a guide as to the precipitation that may be expected here in the spring and summer.

Precipitation records are valuable in ascertaining and estimating stream discharges and the distribution of water for power development. The study and magnitude of floods is largely based on precipitation data, and the possibilities of water resources cannot be correctly obtained without an examination of such data. C. D.

DID YOU FORGET?

The new 27th series of the Narberth Building and Loan Association opened on Thursday evening, March 6th, and if you forgot about the matter you will have an opportunity to take shares out in this series at the April meeting, to be held Thursday evening, April 3rd, from 7 to 9, in Council Chamber, simply by paying two months' dues.

From present indications the 27th series is the largest one opened by the Association, and next week we will be able to tell how many shares were taken out at the March meeting.

It is interesting to note at this time that Philadelphia has an "Own Your Home" Committee, with headquarters at 1126 Walnut street, and which is engaged in preparing an "Own Your Home" campaign which will have its climax during the week of April 21st to 26th.

The campaign is a broad, unselfish, civic movement designed to encourage the owning of homes, and as the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce News Bulletin says: "The 'Own Your Own Home' movement is one of the bulwarks against the spread of Bolshevism, as they realize that ownership of the soil precludes the adoption of these ultra-radical and destructive ideas." The campaign is being supported by almost every business and civic interest in Philadelphia.

During the last year a large number of renters were forced out of their homes by their landlords, either because of a big increase in their rent, or because the owner saw an opportunity to sell his holdings at a profit, and Narberth has suffered from this and similar conditions.

The Narberth Building and Loan Association is a supporter of the movement "Own Your Home," and any of its officers or directors will be glad to explain the Building and Loan idea to any one who is thinking of either building a home or of buying a home, and think they can convince you that a great deal of annoyance and expense may possibly be avoided for you in addition to the fact that in eleven and one-half years you will own your home without encumbrances.

It might be said that it is a great deal easier to obtain a mortgage through a Building and Loan Association in order to pay for "your home" than to obtain a mortgage covering a property in which you are financially interested, but where you do not intend to live.

Do not forget that it will be possible to purchase shares in the 27th series at the April meeting if you missed the opening of the series on March 6th.

The Church busses leave Narberth and Wynnewood Stations at 10.40 on Sunday mornings.

BAPTIST CHURCH OF THE EVANGEL.

Avery S. Demmy, Pastor.

Hours of service:
Sunday, 9.45 A. M.—Bible School.

11 A. M.—Morning worship. Sermon by the pastor on the subject, "The Victory Campaign."

7 P. M.—Baptist Young People's Union.

7.45 P. M.—Evening worship. Sermon by the pastor on the subject, "Calling Out the Reserves."

Wednesday, 8 P. M.—Song and prayer service. What kind of a service is this? If you have not been there come and see and you will find it the brightest hour of all the week.

Sunday morning the pastor will continue the usual children's sermon. What will the pastor say? All boys and girls will want to be present to hear. It is called a children's sermon, but it is noticed the older ones enjoy it as well as the children.

Dress up in your best clothes Sunday, go to church, join in the worship and you will be physically, spiritually and morally better for doing so. Next week's work will go better, too. You will enjoy life more, for you will be on better terms with your conscience.

Any one of the churches in Narberth will be glad to welcome you on Sunday.

Suffrage Notes

The Narberth Branch of the Woman Suffrage Party wish to thank the following, whose kindness helped make the card party a success: The officers of the Overbrook Golf Club, who allowed the use of their attractive club house; St. Margaret's Church, for the chairs, and Mr. George Supplee, who gave the use of his automobile for hauling them; the Community Club and Ladies' Auxiliary, for the china, and the many interested friends who contributed cakes; also the editors of Our Town for devoting so much space to the announcements of the event.

Meeting on March 14th.

The regular monthly meeting of the Narberth Branch of the Woman Suffrage Party will be held on Friday afternoon, March 14th, at 3 o'clock, in the Community Room of the Y. M. C. A. The public is invited to be present.

Will all those having tickets for the card party make returns of same before Saturday, March 8th

Scout News

Regular weekly meeting Boy Scouts of America was held Tuesday, March 4, 1919, at the Elm Hall. The use of the hall was given us by the kind consent of the members of the Fire Company. Business was discussed and our Scoutmaster told us about his attendance to the Scout Executives' meeting at the Automobile Club. All telephone books have been delivered, but 90 of the slips have not yet been turned in. Most of the Scouts worked faithfully, but as in all organizations we have a few slackers.

A letter was received by the troop from the Camp Committee of Camp Delmont which requested that we help in any manner to aid the committee to pay for a council cabin which has been built on the site of the camp. It was moved and seconded that our troop send them $25, and any help by the townspeople of Narberth will be gratefully accepted to help us fulfill our obligation.

After the meeting a rehearsal was held for the minstrel show.

The sole survivor of one of the amateur nights at the Arcade will endeavor to make the success of the show by his aid in keeping our chorus together.

In the Editorial Department we have had several complaints from one of our scouts who dislikes the title of an eminent scientist. We will endeavor to find a more suitable term for our scientist, as he says he far surpasses that name. At present we are using the whole Y. M. C. A. library in an effort to find a higher title which we hope will please his highest expectations.

TAILORS
The above department should be of the greatest use to the community, the list contains the name of every professional man, tradesman, mechanic, shopkeeper, etc., who does or can in any way serve his fellow-townsmen, and who is progressive enough to add name to list of Register.

As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 3 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
